

LATER

Issue 5, June 2015

You view and decide

Understanding The
Snoopers Charter:
Pages 1-8

MPS ON METHAMPHETAMINE?

Chancellor: George Osborne

The Italian?

George Osborne's wallpaper and furniture company, Osborne and Little, manufactured in Britain and Italy and has outlets around the world.

The Nazi Drug

Methamphetamine first appeared as Pervitin, which was released in the general market in Germany in 1938 and was very popular.

Nuclear trigger? Ed Miliband

Ed Miliband's wife: lawyer Justine Thornton

Health: Jeremy Hunt

Education Secretary Nicky Morgan: Dealing in the playground?

Labour leadership candidate: Andy Burnham

Labour leadership candidate: Yvette Cooper

Secretary of State for Northern Ireland: Theresa Villiers

SPY BOSSES

Libya and Ukraine: Recent MI6 boss John Sawers

Ian Lobban: Director of GCHQ

John Sawyers on throne

GCHQ: Listening

John Sawyers: Combating the International Drug Trade

High Flying: Chuka Ummuna

HEROIN?

Big Spender: Chuka Ummuna

Trousers

Chuka Ummuna, described by George Osborne as the outstanding politician of his generation, reportedly thinks nothing of buying a pair of trousers for £2000.

It might be coincidence that Chuka withdrew from the Labour leadership contest the day after Later Newspaper tweets about heroin.

@LaterNewspaper